

International Admissions Application now Open

Taipei National University of the Arts
[TNUA]

Creativity across Cultures

Asian Perspectives:

Indigenous cultures of Taiwan
East Asian cultures
Southeast Asian cultures
South Asian cultures

International Master of the Arts Program in Cultural & Creative Industries (IMCCI)

IMCCI, TNUA:

FEB. 1 – APRIL 6, 2017

ICDF SCHOLARSHIP:

JAN. 1 – MARCH 17, 2017

MOE TAIWAN SCHOLARSHIP:

FEB. 1 – MARCH 30, 2017

Length of Study: 2 years (full-time)

Language of instruction: English

Degree Offered: MA

Credits Required: 31 credits

Application Period: Feb. 1 to April 6, 2017

Full scholarship provided for eligible applicants.

Interdisciplinary Courses

Course Highlights:

Performing Arts
Arts Management and Marketing
Traditional Arts
Cultural Diversity & Arts Creativity
Film & New Media Arts

Scholarship

Financial Aids:

ICDF Scholarship
MOE Taiwan Scholarship
Elite Study In Taiwan (for Southeast Asian Students)
Rotary Club of Taipei Guandu
Scholarship for TNUA Turkish
Students (every other 2 years)
TNUA-IEC Scholarship

Field Experiences

Diverse Learning:

Guest Talks
Field Trips
Internships

Our unique IMCCI program is the first international master's program in Taiwan to concentrate on arts and cultural creative industries. It draws upon Taiwan's successful experiences in cultural creative industries over the years, and aims at cultivating professional arts administrators and leaders around the globe.

Online Application:
<https://sites.google.com/site/tnuaiecen/internationaladmission/handbook>
IMCCI-website: imccitnua.com
Email: imcci@imcci.tnua.edu.tw

