ATTRACTIONS IN KAOHSIUNG

THE PIER-2 ART CENTER

Before some passionate art professionals tried to give it a second life, Pier-2 Art Center was just an ordinary wharf-side warehouse. Today's Pier-2 serves as a unique space where artists and students can present their works. On the open meadow are impressive artistic installations, shown in conjunction with the current exhibitions. People say they are always pleasantly surprised by what's going on at Pier-2 every time they visit this place.

PORT DEPOT 410

Visitors can reach Kaohsiung Port Depot 410 and Kaohsiung Port Warehouse No.2 (KW2) by crossing the Great Harbor Bridge. This spectacular white bridge is both a stunning sight in itself, and a point where sightseers can pause and take in superb views of Kaohsiung's harbor.

FORMOSA BOULEVARD AND "DOME OF LIGHT"

"Dome of Light" is created by Italian artist Narcissus Quagliata is the world's largest public art work made of glass. Boots n All, a well-known travel website, ranked Formosa Boulevard ranked as the second most beautiful subway station in 2012.

ATTRACTIONS IN KAOHSIUNG

Kaohsiung is a sunny and welcoming city where life feels relaxed and easy. The people are warm and friendly, the food is delicious and affordable, and the city is full of fun attractions to explore—from bustling night markets to scenic riversides and seaside views. With its pleasant weather and laid-back charm, Kaohsiung is a place that makes visitors feel right at home. ☀️🌟
