

Representative Harry Ho-jen Tseng

Education:

- PhD, Government and Foreign Affairs, University of Virginia, USA (1993)
  - MPA, Princeton School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University, USA (1991)
  - MA, East Asian Studies, National Chengchi University, Taiwan (1985)
  - BA, Foreign Languages and Literatures, National Taiwan University, Taiwan (1981)
-

Career:

- Representative, Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Canada (2022.8.29~)
  - Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs (2020-2022)
  - Representative, Taipei Representative Office in the European Union and Belgium (2017-2020)
  - Deputy Secretary General, National Security Council (2016-2017)
  - Deputy Secretary General, Office of the President (2016)
  - Ambassador to the Republic of Palau (2014-2016)
  - Representative, Taipei Representative Office in Ireland (2010-2014)
  - Director General, Department of North American Affairs, MOFA (2008-2010)
  - Secretary / Deputy Director / Director, Political Division, Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States (TECRO in the US) (2004-2008)
  - Secretary on Home Assignment / Section Chief / Assistant Director General, Department of North American Affairs, MOFA (2001-2004)
-

- Second Secretary, TECRO in the US (1998-2001)
  - Third / Second Secretary, Embassy of the R.O.C. (Taiwan) in the Republic of South Africa (1994-1998)
  - Adjunct Associate Professor, National Taiwan Normal University (1993-1994)
  - Executive Officer, Department of North American Affairs, MOFA (1993-1994)
  - Administrative Officer on Home Assignment / Senior Officer, Department of North American Affairs, MOFA (1986-1989)
  - Administrative Officer, Taipei Representative Office in the United Kingdom (1985-1986)
  - Senior Officer, Department of Protocol, MOFA (1985)
  - Research Assistant, Institute of International Relations, National Chengchi University, Taiwan (1984)
-