

2023 Taiwan Scholarship Program Directions (Vietnam- South of Da Nang and Cambodia)

Announced on Jan. 15, 2023

Purpose

The Ministry of Education (abbreviated below to “MOE”) has formulated the Taiwan Scholarship Program Directions (also known as the “Taiwan Scholarship Program Guidelines”) to encourage outstanding international students (with the exception of students from the Mainland Area, Hong Kong, and Macau) to undertake degree studies in Taiwan to familiarize themselves with the academic environment in Taiwan and promote communication, understanding, and friendship between Taiwan and the international community. Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Ho Chi Minh City drew up 2023 Taiwan Scholarship Program Directions (Vietnam-South of Da Nang and Cambodia), in accordance with the provisions of the MOE Taiwan Scholarship Program Directions. 2023 Taiwan Scholarship application information as follows:

I. Scholarship Quota and Award

30 scholarships have been allocated for 2023, of which 5 will be allocated to designated universities to make the appointment, while rest of the 25 scholarships will be open for all applicants, in which only the top 25 students, regardless of nationality, will be the recipients. The MOE Taiwan Scholarship Program provides for outstanding Vietnamese (South of Da Nang) and Cambodian students. Each scholarship recipient can choose to undertake a bachelor’s degree, master’s degree or doctorate studies in Taiwan by awarding each recipient of the Taiwan scholarship the following:

II. Duration of Scholarship

- A. The maximum period of a Taiwan Scholarship may be held is: four years for undergraduate programs, two years for master’s degree programs, and four years for doctorate programs.
- B. The Taiwan Scholarship year begins on September 1 and ends on August 31 of the following year. Recipients must arrive in Taiwan and register at their university/college at the scheduled time. It is not permitted to defer taking up a Taiwan Scholarship until the following year. Any student who is unable to arrive in Taiwan and register at their university/college at the scheduled time or for any reason cannot obtain the Visa, will be considered to have forfeited their scholarship eligibility.
- C. The maximum total period that any one person may hold a Taiwan Scholarship is five years.

- D. Living allowance payments begin from the month when the recipient actually begins to attend the university/college, and they end when the maximum scholarship period for their degree level expires, or when the recipient graduates, withdraws from their studies, is suspended or expelled, or has their Taiwan Scholarship revoked.

III. Award Value

- A. Tuition and miscellaneous expenses (i.e. the course-credit fees, and miscellaneous basic study-related fees): The MOE will pay up to NTD 40,000 (~1,290USD) each semester for each recipient's approved tuition and miscellaneous expenses. If these exceed a total amount of NTD 40,000, the remaining amount must be paid to the university/college by the student. The "miscellaneous expenses" do not include any of the following: administration fees, thesis supervision fees, insurance premiums, accommodation, or internet access. These are all the responsibility of the scholarship recipient. A university/college may give scholarship recipients a discount or tuition and/or miscellaneous expenses. The university/college must submit details of which of its departments/institutes are offering scholarship recipients discounts on fees for the following academic year, and a copy of the fee standards to the MOE by the prescribed date each year, and it must also provide a copy of these to any other units designated by the MOE.
- B. Living allowance: The MOE provides each recipient undertaking university undergraduate studies a monthly stipend of NTD 15,000 (~500USD); it provides each recipient undertaking a master's degree or doctorate studies a monthly stipend of NTD 20,000 (670USD).

*List of the universities that gives out discount are in the attached file of 2023.

They are not permitted to apply for a second Taiwan Scholarship to do another degree at the same level or another degree at a lower degree level. A scholarship recipient is not permitted to hold a Taiwan Scholarship longer than the maximum total period of five years.

X. Renewal of Scholarship

The process for determining whether each scholarship recipient whose scholarship has not yet expired will continue to receive scholarship benefits is as follows:

- A. Scholarship recipients' average semester results must achieve the standards set out below to be permitted to continue to receive their scholarship benefits:
  - 1. Undergraduate students must achieve a minimum average semester mark of 70, postgraduate students must achieve a minimum average semester mark of 80; if the university/college has set a higher standard, then that standard must be met.
  - 2. If a scholarship recipient is in the 3rd year or later year of a doctoral program, the manner in which their results are assessed and the criteria used to determine their semester results will be in accordance with the regulations of their university/college.
- B. If a scholarship recipient has completed their program before their scholarship expires and has been given approval to undertake a degree course at the next level by their university/college, the university/college that they are attending may inform the MOE in writing that this has been approved, with a scholarship application form filled out by the student, transcripts of their academic studies in Taiwan, and details of the appraisal of their degree attached, and submit an application to change the student's Taiwan Scholarship level and expiry date.

X. Important Provisions:

- A. Any scholarship recipient who for some reason withdraws from their studies will forfeit their scholarship and any scholarship recipient who has been suspended or expelled from the university/college will have their scholarship revoked:
  - 1. The living allowance will no longer be provided for a scholarship recipient who forfeits their scholarship. If the change of status occurs after the 15th of the month, the student withdrawing from their studies will not be required to refund the living allowance for that month. They must pay back the tuition and miscellaneous expenses paid with scholarship funding in accordance with the debt recovery regulations of the university/college they have been attending.

2. A student whose scholarship has been revoked must pay back all the living allowance payments and the tuition and miscellaneous expenses provided by the MOE from the date the scholarship began until the date it was revoked.
- C. Scholarship recipients are responsible for the payment of all other expenses apart from tuition and miscellaneous expenses. A scholarship recipient who is experiencing financial hardship may apply to the university/college at which they are registered for payments for any other expenses to be deducted from their living allowance.
- D. A scholarship recipient who must undertake an overseas internship that is a requirement of their university/college degree program must not be paid any living allowance for the time spent outside of Taiwan and they will not receive any scholarship money for tuition and miscellaneous expenses during the internship semester(s).
- E. Scholarship recipient whose academic average for the semester is below the standard set by their university/college will have their scholarship suspended for a month; a scholarship recipient whose academic average for the semester has been below the set standard in the two most recent consecutive semesters will have their scholarship revoked, starting from the next semester.
- F. If a scholarship recipient is found to be in simultaneous receipt of any other award or subsidy from any Taiwan Government institution (organization) or any education institution in Taiwan, and this has been verified, their scholarship will be revoked and the student must pay back all the living allowance payments and the tuition and miscellaneous expenses paid during the period when they were also receiving the other award or subsidy.
- G. A scholarship recipient who has registered at a university/college and begun their program is absent from their classes for more than one-third of any month excluding university/college summer and winter breaks. When the absences have been verified, the recipient's living allowance for any such month will be suspended (or have to pay back), and depending on the circumstances, the university/college where the student is registered may decide to revoke the student's scholarship.
- H. All scholarship recipients are required to join the National Health Insurance plan in accordance with Taiwan's national legislation. Before doing so, they must purchase other medical and accident insurance.
- I. After enrolling at a university/college in Taiwan, a scholarship recipient is not permitted to travel to any other country as an exchange student or as a dual/joint degree student. If they do so, their Taiwan Scholarship will be revoked. They are not permitted to retain the still unused part of their Taiwan Scholarship or have the award period extended for them to be able to resume receiving the original scholarship when they return to Taiwan.

- J. A scholarship recipient who must undertake an overseas internship that is a requirement of their university/college degree program must not be paid any living allowance for the time spent outside of Taiwan and they will not receive any scholarship money for tuition and miscellaneous expenses during the internship semester(s).
- K. Any scholarship recipient who submits any application document or any document when they are enrolling that is found to be fake, misleading, has been altered in some way, or contains any falsehood will have their scholarship revoked and must pay back all the living allowance payments and the tuition and miscellaneous expenses provided by the scholarship from the date the scholarship began until the date it was revoked.
- L. Scholarship recipients must act in concert with the MOE's policies and the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Ho Chi Minh City for students who have a Taiwan Scholarship and participate in language and culture related teaching, exchanges, and activities.
- M. If due to pandemic (COVID-19) that scholarship recipient can not enter Taiwan, the scholarship can not be extended or reserved to next year.

XI. Transfers:

- A. A scholarship recipient who has completed one semester or more of studies at a particular university/college or in a particular department or institute there is allowed to transfer to another university/college or department/graduate school, if the two educational institutions involved approve the request. The transfer is handled in accordance with the regulations formulated by the educational institutions. A transfer to another university/college or department/graduate school to a degree program at the same level may only be undertaken once while receiving a Taiwan Scholarship.
- B. A scholarship recipient who wants to transfer to a different degree program at another university/college/ department/graduate school must re-apply to the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Ho Chi Minh City for the degree that they want to transfer from and no longer continue. They are not permitted to continue to receive their current Taiwan Scholarship if they transfer to a different degree.
- C. When a scholarship recipient transfers to another university/college, their current university/college must give that student and the university/college they are transferring to written details of the type of scholarship the student has been awarded, its start and end dates, and the transfer date. The university/college the student is transferring to must notify both the scholarship recipient and their current university/college in writing that it agrees to the transfer and the date of the transfer. Both educational institutions must send copies of all the transfer-related documents to the MOE, to the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Ho Chi Minh City, and to any other office designated by the MOE.

XII. Other Important Provisions:

- A. Scholarship recipients are responsible for the payment of all other expenses apart from tuition and miscellaneous expenses. If recipients who are experiencing financial hardship may apply to the university/college at which they are registered for payments for any other expenses to be deducted from their living allowance.
- B. Scholarship recipients are to turn in Health check form, scholarship certificate and relevant VISA application forms to apply for VISA. VISA has to be obtained before 27th August, 2023. Those who fail to do so will have their recipient qualification revoked.
- C. If a scholarship recipient's academic performance, or conduct, or their attendance record falls below the standard required by the university/college, their scholarships will be suspended or revoked in accordance with the rules and regulations of the universities/colleges.
- D. If a scholarship recipient is found to be in simultaneous receipt of any other award or subsidy from any Taiwan Government institution (organization) or any education institution in Taiwan, and this has been verified, their scholarship will be revoked and the student must pay back all the living allowance payments and the tuition and miscellaneous expenses paid during the period when they were also receiving the other award or subsidy.
- E. All scholarship recipients are required to join the National Health Insurance plan in accordance with Taiwan's national legislation. Before doing so, they must purchase other medical and accident insurance themselves.
- F. After enrolling at a university/college in Taiwan, a scholarship recipient is not permitted to travel to any other country as an exchange student or as a dual/joint degree student. If they do so, their Taiwan Scholarship will be revoked. They are not permitted to retain the still unused part of their Taiwan Scholarship or have the award period extended for them to be able to resume receiving the original scholarship when they return to Taiwan.

- G. A scholarship recipient whose university/college degree program requires them to undertake an overseas internship may be exempt from being considered to have forfeited their scholarship, but they will not receive any scholarship money for tuition and miscellaneous expenses during the internship semester(s) and will not receive any living allowance for time spent outside of Taiwan.
- H. Any scholarship recipient who submits any application document or any document when they are enrolling that is found to be fake, misleading, has been altered in some way, or contains any falsehood will have their scholarship revoked and must pay back all the living allowance payments and the tuition and miscellaneous expenses provided by the scholarship from the date the scholarship began until the date it was revoked.
- I. Scholarship recipients must act in concert with the MOE's policies for students who have a Taiwan Scholarship and participate in language and culture related teaching, exchanges, and activities.
