I. Introduction of 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition

The 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition will take place at the Houli Horse Ranch & Forest Park Area in Taichung’s Houli district, Yongfeng Park Area in Waipu district, and Huludun Park Area in Fengyuan district, respectively occupying areas of 30.04, 14.32 and 16.52 hectares.

This event will feature agricultural-industry representatives from all over Taiwan exhibiting botanical beauty and diversity. Using high-quality themed expo activities, Taichung is aiming to rejuvenate local natural resources, horticulture, garden landscapes and a variety of other industries, generating fresh, cosmopolitan lifestyles and promoting beneficial urban infrastructure and opportunities for international cultural exchanges. In collaboration with the GNP (Green, Nature, and People) theme, the three above-mentioned parks will see eco-friendly development, intensive agriculture, and environmental improvements.

As it hosts the World Flora Exposition, Taichung is developing a multi-faceted model for “Green, Nature and People” that incorporates Taiwan’s essence and beauty and showcases Formosa (meaning “beautiful island”) to the world and conveys the cherished greenery, nature and humanity of island residents who treasure and take pride in their homeland.

VII. Judging Process

1. Judges
   The organizer will invite professional groups and academic institutions, such as flower groups, associations and schools, and recommend 2-3 experts or scholars in the fields of floriculture, botany, garden design, garden landscape and art as the judging team members.

2. Judging Teams
   According to the competition category and period, three to seven judges (one as the chair) will form each of several judging teams conducting joint evaluations.

3. Honorary Judges
   AIPH will recommend eight foreign jurors as honorary judges, divided into two groups for reviewing the World Garden Competition and International Indoor Horticulture Competition.

4. Review Guidelines
   (1) Judges are required to evaluate and score in person, with judicial neutrality being required.
   (2) Judges shall avoid evaluating and scoring for competitions in which they are also participants.
   (3) Judging teams have discretion to award prizes and reserve the right to refrain from awarding prizes if it is determined that submissions do not qualify for such recognition.
   (4) If two or more competition entries earn the same scores, the judging teams are required to re-evaluate entries.
   (5) Judging results shall be respected by all.
   (6) Judging teams are responsible for settling disputes arising from the judging process or results.

VIII. Importation and Exportation of Exhibits

1. Entry and Exit
   In terms of customs declaration, quarantine, importation and exportation, ports nearest to the site are recommended. Exhibitors can also contact freight forwarders appointed by the organizer for clearance and logistics matters such as delivery and storage after arrival in Taiwan. Services include customs declarations, quarantine, and cargo delivery to the site, unloading of cargoes and removal work after the exhibition.

2. Customs Declaration and Quarantine
   Exhibitors shall adhere to “Quarantine Requirements for the Importation of Plants or Plant Products into the Republic of China” and “Quarantine Requirements for the Importation of Wooden Packaging Material to Taiwan”.
   During customs and quarantine, exhibitors or entrusted agency by the exhibitors are required to complete plant quarantine application and other importing and exporting matters.
IX. Maintenance and Management

1. Maintenance and Management
Exhibitors are responsible for maintaining all the hardware and facilities.

2. Exhibit Maintenance and Management
Exhibitors are responsible for exhibit maintenance and management. Exhibitors who are not able to execute on-site maintenance can commission designated plant-care companies at the expense of the exhibitors.

3. Exhibit Rearrangement
Please conduct arrangement work during non-visitor periods. However, if severe damage appears on a displayed entry, please contact the organizer regarding removal or exchanges, including worn flower pots, withered flowers, leaf injuries, insects and diseases.

4. Refrigerated Storage (floral materials storage only)
The refrigerated storage at the Floral Main Exhibition Hall is for flower-preservation usage only.

X. Other Services

1. Cultural Activity
Cultural activities which feature ethnic performing arts or flower related activities are open to applications from International Indoor Floriculture exhibitors.
The organizer will provide venues and on-site stage facilities; however, extra fees will be covered by the applicants while early applications will lead to first option. However, the organizer reserves the right to reject the request as a result of insufficient area allocation.

2. Insurance
(1) Personal insurance, including travel insurance and accident insurance, is required.
(2) Exhibitors shall work with insurance companies on insurance-related matters such as losses suffered during delivery and damage occurring during the exhibition period due to fires, explosions, wind, crack, theft, etc.
3. Medical Service
Please contact the following agencies regarding any needed medical care:
(1) Medical station: Provider of first-aid assistance.
(2) Hospital: Please contact information center or medical station for the address of the nearest hospital.
(3) Emergency: During an emergency, please call 119 directly.

4. Emergency Procedures
To respond safely and quickly in the event of an emergency situation such as blackout, fire or other incident, please follow the instructions issued or broadcasted by the organizer.

5. Transportation Information
Transportation Information will be published soon.

6. Others
Regulations/guidelines regarding peripheral service facilities, staff parking, exhibitor areas, staff cafeterias, shuttle buses, and emergency response measures will be provided soon.

XI. Application

1. Application Instructions

(2) Written Application: Contestants shall prepare and deliver or mail six hard copies of and one CD with application documents during office hours to the ‘Taichung World Flora Exposition Office’ at 1F., No. 36, Yangming St., Fengyuan Dist., Taichung City 420 (please note ‘Participation in 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition Competition’ on the envelope). Guidelines Governing Competition Subsidies and Awards for 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition

I. To encourage domestic and international institutions, cities, organizations, relevant industries and individuals to participate in various competitions held during the 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition, Taichung City Government (hereinafter “Taichung City”) has formulated these Guidelines.

II. Competition Categories: Taiwan Garden Competition, World Garden Competition, International Indoor Horticulture Competition and Short Term Indoor Floriculture Competition. Please refer to Attachments 1 to 4 to learn more about competitions and regulations. Taichung City retains the right to adjust exhibition dates and configurations, based on application submissions.

1. Taiwan Garden Competition:
   Includes one long-term and five short-term overall landscape design competitions.

2. World Garden Competition:
   Includes one overall landscape design competition with mandatory participation, and six individual competitions with a minimum of five contestant groups required for each individual competition category.

3. International Indoor Horticulture Competition:
   Includes one overall landscape design competition with mandatory participation, and nine individual competitions with a minimum of five contestant groups required for each individual competition category.

4. Short Term Indoor Floriculture Competition:
   Includes nine overall landscape design competitions.
III. Competition Application and Eligibility Review

Contestants shall attach competition applications and budget plans. Contestants who apply to two or more agencies for subsidies on the same work shall clearly state their entire budget plan, subsidized items and the amount of requested subsidies for review by all related agencies. Taichung will not grant subsidies for same work twice if a contestant concurrently applies for subsidies to Taichung City and other affiliated agencies. Contestants are allowed to change implementation plans following agency notification or approval. In any case of misrepresentation or falsification, Taichung City will cancel the subsidy and demand repayment.

1. Application
   (1) Required Documents
   All contestants are allowed to apply for a maximum of two booths and are required to submit the following applications according to the competition categories and regulations.
   i. Competition application
   ii. Competition plan, including:
       A. Theme
       B. Design Plan
       C. Budget Plan
       D. Budget Allocation Sheet (for contestants only applying to Taichung City)
   iii. Individual Competition Application (not for Taiwan Garden Competition or Short Term Indoor Floriculture Competition)

   (2) Application Steps
   i. Written Application
      Contestants shall prepare and deliver or mail six hard copies of and one CD with application documents during office hours to the ‘Taichung World Flora Exposition Office’ at 1F., No. 36, Yangming St., Fengyuan Dist., Taichung City 420 (please note ‘Participation in 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition Competition’ on the envelope). Postal submissions must be postmarked before the deadline and contestants should retain backup copies of their submissions, which will not be returned. The same procedure is required for resubmissions.

ii. Online Application
Contestants can download documents and select competition categories and items on the official 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition website (http://www.2018floraexpo.tw). Contestants should complete required documents and online files according to relevant instructions and send them to 2018tcfloraexpo@gmail.com when applying for competitions prior to deadlines. The same procedure is required for resubmissions.

(3) Application Period: Please refer to Taichung City’s official event website.

2. Review of Eligibility
(1) Review
i. Preliminary selections will be conducted with consideration of the competition category, competition content, required documents, and accuracy and integrity of the required information. Failure to adhere to guidelines will result in a single correction and resubmission opportunity within a limited time period. Should a resubmission be submitted late or still fail to meet guidelines, the application shall be rejected.

ii. The review committee will be composed of experts, scholars and industry/organization representatives. During meetings to review competition categories and items, the committee will conduct its application reviews of required documents and content to select eligible contestants.

iii. The review committee shall convene with at least two-thirds of its members, including one selected as its moderator. Valid decisions require the attendance of over 50% of committee members.

(2) Review Standards
i. 30% for theme (design concept)
ii. 30% for innovation and overall appearance
iii. 20% for structure and materials
iv. 20% for budget allocation and construction feasibility

(3) Review Results
i. Following an overall review, a contestant with a total score of at least 70 (out of 100) and confirmation by the review committee will be qualified as competing group or individual.
ii. Review results will be announced via the official 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition website and email notifications.

IV. Standards for Subsidies and Awards
1. Taiwan Garden Competition
   (1) Subsidy Items & Standards
   i. Long Term Garden Landscape Design Competition
      City governments and corporations in Taiwan are invited to participate in this competition. Each contestant (or contestant unit) may only apply for one booth with no subsidies for arrangements provided by Taichung City.
   ii. Short Term Garden Landscape Design Competition
      Every contestant (or contestant unit) may apply for a maximum of two booths, each booth with a NT$150,000 arrangement subsidy.
   (2) Award Items & Standards

4. Judging Results

Judging teams shall adhere to the judging evaluation and scoring guidelines. Following the confirmation of awards, results will be published on the official 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition website. Notification letters and emails regarding award ceremonies will also be sent.

VI. Conflict of Interest Avoidance Guidelines

1. The Administrative Procedure Law, Article 32 shall be applied to all review and judging teams in order to avoid conflicts of interest.

2. Review and judging team members are required to sign a statement, acknowledging their neutrality and agreeing to confidentiality related to the judging meetings. Taichung City is entitled to dismiss judges who violate related regulations, and reserves the right to revoke subsidies and prizes earned by contestants connected with such judges.

VII. Subsidy Appropriation and Verification

The 2018 Taichung World Flora Exposition Special Budget Proposal will allocate subsidies and prizes for competitions and exhibitions.

1. Appropriation
   (1) 1st Phase: Following a successful application review and contract signed by both parties, 20% of the subsidy will be paid.
   (2) 2nd Phase: 50% of the subsidy will be paid after overall arrangements are completed.
   (3) 3rd Phase: 30% of the subsidy will be paid after the exhibition and dismantling arrangements and final reports are completed.
   (4) When applying for a subsidy, recipients shall abide by the principle of good faith and take full responsibility for information provided in submitted expenditure reports. Recipients shall bear all legal responsibilities arising from falsified or inaccurate information.
   (5) Recipients shall be responsible for taxes and other expenses derived from subsidies.
   (6) Recipients shall submit an expenditure summary report in compliance with Management Guidelines for the Disposal of Expenditure Records and carefully itemize expenditure purposes and total amounts. Recipients who receive subsidies from two or more agencies shall itemize and list the actual grants from such agencies.

2. Verification
   Recipients shall attach the following documents:
   (1) Documents in the 1st Phase: Subsidy request application, notice of allowance, contracts signed by related parties, design drawings, intellectual property warranties, invoices or receipts, recipient’s account information, and inspection records completed by Taichung City.

(2) Documents in the 2nd Phase: Subsidy request application, photos taken during and after expo set-up, invoices or receipts, recipient’s account information, and inspection records completed by Taichung City.

(3) Documents in the 3rd Phase: Subsidy request application, detailed breakdown of expenditures, payment documents (incl. attached photocopies of expenditure documentation and government agency budget distribution sheets; receipt titles should be identical to the recipient’s name), result reports (incl. report on competition content and process, images presented in the competitions and exhibitions, photos taken during competitions, name list of contestants in the same group), invoices or receipts, recipient’s account information, and inspection record completed by Taichung City.

In situations where recipients have difficulty in providing expenditure documentation or the budgets are not used effectively, recipients shall state the reasons for such circumstances and, with Taichung City approval, submit other supporting information to request subsidies.

VIII. Awards & Prizes

1. According to the Income Tax Act, winners will receive competition prizes after taxes are deducted.

2. For bookkeeping purposes, subsidies or prizes denominated in U.S. dollars will be exchanged to NT dollars according to Bank of Taiwan spot rates.

3. Prizes will be transferred to the winners’ designated bank accounts.

4. In addition to prizes, competition results will be publicized via marketing and public events held by Taichung World Flora Exposition. Ceremony dates and venues will be noted on the official website.
IX. Rights & Obligations

Contestants have the following rights and obligations:

1. Rights
   (1) Exhibitors are entitled to apply for the use of the Taichung World Flora Exposition logo.
   (2) Exhibitors are entitled to participate in public relations activities held by the organizer.
   (3) Exhibitors are entitled to apply for first option in joining cultural performances, indoor performances, competitions and celebrations held by the organizer.
   (4) With provided exhibitor badges, exhibitors are entitled to use public facilities, including staff parking, rest area, etc.
   (5) Contestants shall abide by the points of consensus between Taichung City and contestants.

2. Obligations
   (1) Contestants are obliged to report the progress of projects to Taichung City.
   (2) In cooperation with Taichung City’s promotion of cultural and creative industries, contestants shall participate in related events. For the purpose of educational promotion, publication, media publicity, online marketing and broadcasting in theaters, contestants shall agree to Taichung City’s not-for-profit usage of contestant-generated result reports, publications of works (incl. photos, images, documentary films), screenplays, written records, books, audio materials and other forms of work.
   (3) Contestants shall not conduct improper or misleading publicity, inappropriate behavior, or any behavior resulting in legal infractions.
   (4) For the purposes of public welfare or policy directives, contestants agree that Taichung City reserves the right to use and recreate works derived from the contestant’s words, photos and videos.
   (5) Contestants shall abide by the points of consensus between Taichung City and contestants.

X. Notice
2. Contestants are responsible for designing, decorating, maintaining, managing and tearing down their booths.
3. Contestants are responsible for maintaining their competition entries during the exhibitions, including regular maintenance and changing of flowers, care for special plants, and facility upkeep.
4. Contestants are responsible for arranging insurance coverage, including life, travel and accident insurance.
5. Contestants shall arrange insurance for their competition entries, including coverage of possible damage occurring during delivery or caused by accidents or force majeure.
6. Should any of the following conditions occur, Taichung City reserves the right to cancel part or all of its subsidies or request that awarded subsidies be returned within a limited time period. Those failing to return subsidies within this designated period will be subject to administrative regulations:
   (1) Where concealment or falsification occurs in submitted documents, result reports and related attachments.
   (2) Where subsidies are not used in accordance with approved purposes or where falsification and exaggerated statements occur.
   (3) Where falsified expenditure documents are submitted.
   (4) Where execution is suspended for no acceptable reason or work progress severely falls behind schedule.
   (5) Where violations of these and other related guidelines occurs.
7. Should any of the conditions listed in Article 6 take place, Taichung City is entitled to reject other subsidy applications from the violator for one to three years, depending on the severity of the violation.
8. Information regarding subsidy recipients and amounts shall be open and transparent on Taichung City and affiliated authorities’ websites.

10. All unused subsidies shall be returned to government agencies according to the ratio of the original amounts designated by the government. In cases where subsidized projects cannot be carried out, in addition to providing an explanation in written form, recipients shall also return the unused subsidies.

11. Interest or other derived revenues from subsidies shall be returned.

12. Retention and destruction of the payment documents shall adhere to the Accounting Law. Destruction of documents that have been kept for the required retention period shall take place after notification of Taichung City for auditing division approval. In situations where early document destruction, damage or loss occurs, contestants are responsible for providing explanations and solutions, and notify Taichung City for auditing division approval. In the case of violations, Taichung City is entitled to reduce the violator’s subsidy amount or suspend further subsidies for one to three years depending on the severity of the circumstances.

13. Taichung City is entitled to dispatch representatives to conduct on-site examination, request that contestants provide written documents, and attend and report at meetings. Contestants shall not avoid, interfere with or refuse such requests and shall properly respond and act according to Taichung City suggestions.

14. Matters not mentioned within in these Guidelines shall adhere to related regulations.

XI. These Guidelines will be considered void after the competition and all related required actions and responsibilities have been completed.
